CLASH OF AUTHORITY

In Regard to the Local Primary
In Louisville.

State Committee Calls it Off And Local Committee Refuses to Obey the Call.

Louisville, Ky., May 25.—A resolution declaring off this week's primary was passed Saturday by the Democratic State Central Committee by a vote of 8 to 3. The resolution declared that the non-salaried officers shall be nominated in a primary.

The list of the election officers will be published at least ten days before the primary. If the chairman of the Louisville committee fails to comply with this the State chairman is empowered to take the steps necessary to bring it about.

The resolution fixes a date for the new primary at not later than August 1.

Messrs. Chinn, Adams and Vreeland, of the committee, voted against calling off the primary.

On Saturday night a meeting of Louisville candidates, leading lawyers and leading Democrats was held. It was held that the central committee exceeded its authority in calling off the primary and it was determined to hold the primary Tuesday notwithstanding.

Chairman Young was called a political free-booter and the charge was made that he had sold out to the Republican party.

The Courier-Journal strongly backs up the local machine in defying the State committee and declares that the primary will be held to-morrow in spite of the State committee.

Yesterday Chairman Young addressed a letter to County Chairman M. W. Neal directing him to formally notify him by noon of his acceptance of the order calling off the primary, or he would remove the entire Louisville committee for disobedience and resistance of party authority. Following the order, the anti-Grainger candidates in a body notified Chairman Neal that they accepted the decree and ordering him not to consider them candidates before the primary be postponed to hold anyhow.

A committee headed by Grainger and Vreeland called on Gov. Beckham Sunday but failed to secure any help.

It was expected that in the event Chairman Neal refuses to order off the primary, that Chairman Young will at once remove the local committee and appoint another in its stead.

The old committee backed by Grainger and the Courier-Journal, will go ahead with the Grainger primary, with only one set of candidates, and the new committee will then order another primary which will be recognized by the anti-machine candidates. This means a wide open split and certain defeat in November for both tickets.

GOOD HOPE CHURCH

Selected as Place for Next Universalist Convention.

The Universalist annual state convention at Fruit Hill closed a three days' session Sunday night. Four churches were represented at the meeting. The attendance Sunday was very large. Rev. H. C. Beckett, of this city, preached the annual sermon Friday. A considerable sum of money was secured by subscription during the convention to assist in rebuilding the church at Crofton which was burned two weeks ago. Rev. Beckett, who has the matter of soliciting in hand, has succeeded in raising nearly all of the amount required and the church will be rebuilt at an early date.

Good Hope church, two miles west of Mappington, was selected as the next place of meeting of the convention in October, when a semi-annual session will be held.

RESIGNS.

Dr. W. L. Nourse Quits Presbytery Pastorate.

His Resignation Accepted And Final Sermon Preached
Sunday.

Rev. Dr. W. L. Nourse, pastor of the Ninth Street Presbyterian church, resigned his pastorate Sunday morning and preached his retiring sermon. The resignation has been accepted and Dr. Nourse's connection with the church was formally ended yesterday.

Dr. Nourse is recognized as one of the ablest ministers of his denomination in Kentucky. He came to Hopkinsville in 1886 and had been pastor of the church for twenty years. Recognized by all denominations as a minister of great ability and culture, he has enjoyed the confidence, respect and esteem of all the people of Hopkinsville.

The reasons for his resignation were not made public, nor is it known what Dr. Nourse's future plans are. He owns a farm near the city and it is quite likely he will continue to make his home here.

He leaves the church he has so long served in a strong and satisfactory condition.

It is considered one of the most desirable pastorates in the Presbyterianity to which it belongs.

NOVEL GAME.

Traveling Men Being Multed Out of Money.

A novel game that seems to be making a lot of money for the promoters is being worked all over the country. A pamphlet copy of the story of a recent tragedy in Buffalo is being sent to traveling men at 60 cents c. o. d. The plan is to send the book to traveling men's addresses where they live, knowing that 90 per cent of them are away from home. Their families, thinking that absent drummers had ordered the book, readily pay the 60 cents c. o. d., and are mulcted of that amount of money.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Summer Term of Four Weeks Begins Next Monday.

Friday was the last day for filing suits for the June term of Christian Circuit Court, which convenes next Monday. The docket is made up as follows: Equity cases, 170; common law, 84; Commonwealth, 119. The appearance docket is not as large as usual, there being only about 50 new cases. Of these nearly 60 per cent, are divorce suits, brought by colored people mostly. The June term will consume four weeks.

WOUNDED IN BATTLE.

John Trice, Jr., Proves to Be Like Achilles.

John B. Trice, Jr., who was a student at the Kentucky State College, Lexington, returned home Saturday in a disabled condition from an injury received in a sham battle at Ashland, Ky. He was engaged in practice with the artillery corps and a heavy cannon wheel passed over his foot, crushing his heel, which like the heel of Achilles proved to be a vulnerable point. He is confined to his room with a "wound," but is able to sit up. His school will close next week.

The Voting Machine.

At the last municipal election held in this city the successful candidate for mayor was elected by a bare plurality of 72 votes out of a total of over 33,000, and yet, within half an hour after the polls were closed the result was known to a certainty, while despite the closeness of the vote, there was not so much as an intimation of a contest on the part of the defeated candidate. Rochester had used the voting machine, and there was no chance to "go behind the returns." If the old paper ballots had been used there would undoubtedly have been enough solid and marked ballots to form the basis for a contest, with all its attendant expense and waste.

Rochester's experience with the machine during the past five elections has been so satisfactory that city officials, politicians and the public generally give it practically unanimous approval, and there is no desire to go back to the old system. Rochester feels that it is, in this respect at least, at the very forefront of progress.

The machine which is used in this city is often described as a mechanical Australian ballot. It insures secrecy to the voter, is simple and easy to operate, it never makes mistakes, it not only records but also counts the votes as they are made, and it presents the tabulated results of the precinct vote to the judges the instant the polls are declared closed. All that is left to do in order to get the result of the election is to add together the figures from each precinct in the ward, or city or district, as the case may be. The machine is known as the United States Standard voting machine, and is made in Jamestown, N. Y.

The familiar cash register seen everywhere in stores is the contrivance which best illustrates the nature of the voting machine. The principle is very much the same, a set of pointers or levers, a locking device and a mechanism for computation being used, but of course the voting machine is much more complicated than the other.

The face of the machine, as it is presented to the voter, who stands before it, is about four feet square, and its depth is ten inches. It is supported on four steel legs, which bring the top of it about six feet above the floor. It weighs about 500 pounds and costs $500.

A movable curtain is hung in front of the machine, so arranged that it remains open while no one is using it, but is shut automatically as soon as the voter comes to a cent for it," says C. P. Rayder, Patterson Mills, N. Y. "A few days later he walked into the store as straight as a string and handed me a dollar saying, 'give me another bottle of your famous Pain Balm. I want it in the house all the time for it cured me.'" For sale by C. K. Wylie, druggist.

He then finds all the little pointers freely movable and at his service to arrange any way he chooses.

He can replace as many of the pointers representing candidates on his ticket as he chooses, thus taking his vote away from them, and he can turn downward the pointers for candidates to correspond on the other tickets.

If he has made a mistake and pressed the wrong party knob at the start, he can adjust the machine so as to vote straight for an entirely different ticket if he chooses.

All this moving of the pointers has no effect whatever on the registering and counting apparatus. The voter can take plenty of time and make sure that his ticket is fixed up the way he wants it. If the old paper ballots had been used there would undoubtedly have been enough solid and marked ballots to form the basis for a contest, with all its attendant expense and waste.

The voter then finds himself facing the machine on which are rows of small numbered pointers. Each candidate to be voted for is represented by one of these pointers, and each political party has its candidates' names placed in a row horizontally across the front of the machine. The different candidates for the same office therefore have their names one beneath the other in the perpendicular columns. At the left of each party row is a knob, which is the name of the party and a symbol or emblem to represent it.

When the voter wants to vote a straight party ticket, the first thing he has to do, after he has moved the lever that unlocks the keys, is to press the knob which represents the particular party to the right until it rings a bell. This movement turns downward every one of the little pointers that represent the candidates of the party and places them in a voting position. It does not register the vote, however, as it is only a preliminary getting into position. To complete the vote and register and count it all the voter needs to do then is to seize the original lever which unlocked the keys and closed the curtain, and push it back to its old place. With that the curtain opens, the vote is recorded and the keys are relocked, preliminary to the appearance of another man ready to exercise his right of suffrage.

It is not much more difficult to split a ticket than to vote straight. To split the voter must first press the knob representing one of the political parties. For convenience he will use the knob of the party from which he chooses most of his candidates, but that is not essential.

Any one of the knobs will do. He then finds all the little pointers freely movable and at his service to arrange any way he chooses.

He can replace as many of the pointers representing candidates on his ticket as he chooses, thus taking his vote away from them, and he can turn downward the pointers for candidates to correspond on the other tickets.

RUINED BY A RASH WAGER.

A rash wager has ruined many a man financially, but this wager ruined a man physically. He was proud of his strength and wagered that he could lift a ship's anchor. He won the wager, but the strain was too great for him and he broke down in health from that day.

There's many a man or woman who undertakes too great a task for the strength they possess. They won't give up, so they break down. The woman drudges in the kitchen, the man toils in the shop. The man doesn't break down by one tremendous strain, but by a steady over-draft on their strength.

People who are run-down in health, deficient in vitality, worn-out or worked out, will find new life and strength in the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, and so enables nourishment of the body. It purifies and strengthens the blood and adds to the body with sound muscle and solid flesh.

"Where I commenced your medicine my health was completely broken down," writes Mrs. Minnie Lampman, of Winona, Wis. "At times, generally after eating, was taken to the service station to vomit. I used to express what I suffered. My right arm was almost helpless—it was very much stiffened, and my nerves were all to no avail. I was no better. I felt dreadfully discouraged, but thought I would try once more to find relief. I began to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Favorite Prescription.' I gradually began to improve in each day, and grew strong all over."

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery" for diseases of the stomach and blood.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pillots cleanse the bowels and stimulate the sluggish liver.

Democratic Ticket.FOR CIRCUIT JUDGE,
CHARLES H. BUSH,
OF CHRISTIAN. *FOR COMMONWEALTH'S ATTORNEY,
DENNY P. SMITH,
OF TRIGG.BUSH THE NOMINEE.

The Judicial District Committee at Eddyville, Friday, declared C. H. Bush the nominee of Circuit Judge by a majority of 147.

It has been charged that they had no authority to so act, and that in doing so they "robbed" three Trigg county precincts.

It is conclusively shown in another column that the only committee in existence declared Bush the nominee. There were a crowd of insurgents, including only one county chairman, who met elsewhere and it is reported favored Cook's nomination in face of the facts.

It will be remembered that in 1900 Goebel was declared Governor of Ky., by the only competent authority, Taylor and his crowd refused to quit, and began this nefarious prattle about trouble. These county committees have chosen to elect new chairman in three counties. The deposed gentlemen refuse to abide the committee's action. They will hold on by force, and if they cannot control the party they will give it to ruin.

And the McKinley-Taylor-Yerkes organ, begins to speak of trouble. Not of party factions, except as it can be created by the agitation of a number of gentlemen who have already bolted more than once. The Taylor-Yerkes organ may fret and fume a little. But it will soon get over it. And the nominees of this primary will be elected.

The Committee did disregard the vote of three Trigg county precincts. In one the vote had not been certified at all, not to say as the law requires. In the other two they voted, it is alleged, till about five o'clock. The Record says till 4:30.

The court of appeals has said there is nothing else to do, but disregard such precincts. No party action. The court of appeals did that. The committee did as that court directed. What else could it do?

Judge Bush to arrive at a proper settlement proposed to Judge Cook to disregard all votes cast after four o'clock, and abide the result. Cook replied that he would insist upon disregarding all illegal votes. Bush agreed, wrote up the agreement, and signed it. Cook and his advisers spurred the agreement, though he had proposed it. Why? He must have thought the illegal and Republican votes were all in his favor. That certainly would have settled the question, and the trouble the political editor foresaw would have been completely obviated.

There was no denial that the fatal irregularities existed in Trigg. The affidavits of as good men as can be found proved it. Besides Col. John Kelly, the leading politi-

The reader of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being the cause of all diseases, it requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing the work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Hall's Family Pills are the best.

ian, so he says himself, of Trigg county, and Judge Cook's campaign manager for that county, and his Master Commissioner, was here yesterday watching Cook's interests. He repeatedly and openly admitted and boasted that there had been stealing done in Trigg, and declared himself an expert at the business. He had seemed to reach a state of desperation in which he forgot all about law and all about Democracy, who means equal justice to all alike.

The people will see that the right prevails. They still rule the rooster, and the machine must go.—Tale of Two Cities.

The Democratic State Central Committee which met at Frankfort Saturday did not take up the consideration of Judge Cook's threatened contest in the Third judicial district. It is not considered at all probable that Committeeman Whittemore's appointments in Lyon and Calloway, to fill vacancies on the committee, will be disturbed. The appointments made by the district committeemen are considered approved, unless formally turned down, something that rarely ever happens, the committeemen are slow to treat each other with courtesy. The committee met Saturday and, as far as known, no protest was even made against Mr. Whittemore's action in filling vacancies, as was his privilege under the party law. There is but one legal and recognized committee in the district, and that is the one from which Judge Bush received his certificate of nomination. If Judge Cook desires to set up a claim to the nomination, the proper mode of procedure would be to file a contest.

The attempt of his friends to form a rump committee and resist party authority by bolting the nomination of Judge Bush, was a very unwise step and one that will never receive the sanction of the State Central Committee.

Whatever may be the merits of the trouble in Louisville, public opinion will approve the action of the State Committee in stopping a primary that intended to leave no element of doubt in the result. The primary held May 9 was a fair sample of what would be repeated this time. The law had not been observed in appointing officers and there was apparently no intention to hold a legal election. Both factions pulled together May 9, but this time they fell out and outsiders realize now why certain state candidates did not get their dues on May 9.

The Cadiz Record, in defending illegal voting in Cook precincts, says the polls at Golden Pond, a precinct that went for Bush, were also kept open after four o'clock. The statement is denied by men who were there, but if it be true the precinct should have been thrown out. It is worth while to note, though, in passing, that the officers were named by Bush's enemies and doubtless told what to do. Votes placed in a ballot box after the election is over are fraudulent, and getting on a high horse under oath does not alter the facts in the case.

The will of W. F. Norton was filed for probate in the Jefferson County Court Thursday. Numerous personal bequests are made in the will, amounting to $71,000, the largest of which is to Dr. Joseph A. Sweeney, who will receive $13,000. The bulk of the estate goes to the Baptist Orphans' Home of Louisville, the estimated amount being $700,000.

One hundred State guards have been sent to Jackson, Breathitt county, to preserve order during the trial of Curtis Jett, the alleged slayer of Jas. B. Marcus. The company will be made up of detachments from Lexington, Shelbyville and Louisville.

The Court of Appeals has granted the rule requiring Judge Cantrell to vacate the bench during the coming trial of Caleb Powers. A special judge, probably Judge Benton, of Winchester, will be appointed to try the case.

Four years ago when a primary was attempted in Louisville, it was called off at noon while the election was in progress and, if we mistake not, the Courier-Journal endorsed the act. It sometimes makes a difference whose ox is gored.

COMMENCEMENTExercises at Bethel College

Now Hold Attention.

Diplomas Will be Awarded Wednesday Evening to Seven Graduates.

The annual reception by the young ladies of Bethel college, Friday evening, proved to be a thoroughly enjoyable finale to a successful session. The attendance was large and the spacious rooms were tastefully decorated. Dainty and seasonable refreshments were served.

The graduates in the music department gave a recital on Saturday night, a delightful program being rendered by Misses Lam, Graves, Schaefer and Wright, assisted by Misses Drake and Gates.

Last night there was a pupils' recital in music and elocution, followed by a social hour.

This evening the baccalaureate address will be delivered by Dr. Dargan at the Baptist church.

The graduates are as follows: B. A.—Jeanie Trice Graham, Myrtle Lynne Golladay, Mary Chambliss Nass, Delle Waddington. M. A.—Ada May Schaefer, Marian Walker Williams, Jose Medina Soyars.

Piano—Poly Cummings Graves, Mamie Elizabeth Lam, Mary Wright.

Tomorrow evening the regular graduating exercises will be held and degrees awarded to those who have won them.

The Alumnae Association of the college will hold a meeting at 10 o'clock this morning. There will be some informal exercises and music by Misses Burnett and Willis.

Still Very Sick.

Mr. T. L. Gant, who arrived here last week from Texas, is dangerously ill of typhoid fever. His condition was slightly improved yesterday.

Once more the Courier-Journal is on the war-path, in spite of its oft-repeated claim that it never, even hardly ever, mixes up in fights inside the party. And it pains us to see that the Courier-Journal, like certain local organs that aspire to be bosses, is indolently engaged in delaying party authority.

Primaries are not likely to become popular in Louisville. The first one attempted in June, 1899, broke up in a row. The last State primary was farcical and fraudulent and a city primary has just been postponed for the second time.

The town of Carmen, O. T., was practically destroyed by a tornado Friday. Three people were killed and twenty injured. The Methodist church was leveled and set up on top of another building.

EARNED MONEY TO STUDY ARTSOME OF THE WAYS Adopted by a*Plucky Girl from Maine.

A bright girl who is just now in the first flush of triumph over the fact that she has secured employment with a New York decorating house scored a mark at the art school for the plucky way in which she earned money enough for her studies.

Her home, says the New York Sun, is in the state of lumber camps and picturesque harbors. One summer she worked with a comrade in an improvised laboratory, where the two made jellies, sweet pickles and preserves for sale. They made them out of fruit and berries which they picked in person.

After they got a start they employed the neighborhood boys and girls to pick fruit for them. But the art student took the lead in beating up trade and did much work that was uncongenial in her effort to make enough money to keep her at school in New York in the winter.

The next summer when she went home she set up in the vegetable business and sold the proceeds of her garden patch to hotel and boarding house keepers. This paid fairly well, but involved hard work and much going about. And the next summer the indefatigable maiden brought her another plan for raising funds for living expenses, car fares, etc.

That year she had won a prize scholarship at the art school, but there were still many expenses to be met. Everybody who has been to Maine among the network of islands on the coast knows how necessary the private ferry is to the tourists' convenience. A man in the art student's neighborhood had such a ferry which he was aware of tending. And the girl persuaded him to subject it to her. She ran the boat successfully all that vacation time, and made a most picturesque ferry woman in her short kilf skirt, trim shirt waist and sailor's hat. Once it got out that her venture was for the sake of art and not for motory, many people quartered about made it a point to patronize her ferry whenever possible on their outings excursions. And some formed the habit of coming to the ferry to ride a ride.

The toll she took in that summer exceeded by much the revenue from either jelly making or the selling of vegetables in the raw. The ferry girl is harnessed to a desk now for $20 a week, contracted to get out so many designs in decorative notions during a stipulated time. She enjoys the idea of having attained a definite place in her New York career. But she looks back to those long days spent in the free air as to a pleasant experience.

After the first awkwardness wore off she enjoyed the task of ferrying people and she declares that if ever her eyes or hands or ideas give out in the artist's business she will start another passenger boat up there among the Maine islands.

CIVIL WAR VETERAN

Of This County Dies at Confederate State Home.

Simeon R. B. Nichols, familiarly called "Bad" Nichols, of Sinking Fork, this county, who was sent to the Confederate Home at Peewee Valley Jan. 8, died in the institution Saturday. He was stricken with paralysis last October and suffered a second stroke a few weeks ago, which caused his death. He was 63 years old, a widower, was a member of Company A, First Kentucky cavalry during the Civil war serving under Captain Darwin Bell, of this county. He was a brother of Mr. Livy L. Nichols, who lives a few miles west of this city. The body was interred in the Confederate cemetery at Peewee Valley.

Hopkins County Case.*Officers Charged With Murder
Union Officers Acquitted at Paducah.*The jury in the case of Deputy Sheriff J. B. Lindle and possemen Wade M. Mcintosh and Madison Johnson, on trial at Madisonville, returned a verdict of acquittal Saturday.

The killing for which these men were on trial occurred between the posse and a body of armed union miners who were marching toward the properties of the Carbondale and Crabtree Coal companies in Hopkins county. The officers were trying to enforce a proclamation of the sheriff prohibiting unlawful congregations and demonstrations for the purpose of intimidation in the neighborhood of the coal mines of the county, where the non-union miners were peaceably employed.

The officers were hired on while Deputy Lindle was in the act of reading the proclamation and the first two shots were at such close range that they powder-burned Lindle's face. The fire was returned by the posse and two of the leading file on the miners' side were killed.

At the first trial two years ago, a jury rendered a compromised verdict, sentencing the three men to two years in the penitentiary. Immediately after giving this verdict three of the jurymen made affidavit that six of their number were, during all the deliberation of the jury in favor of acquittal, but that they had agreed to the verdict only as a compromise with contending factions of the case. The case went to the Court of Appeals and the lower court was reversed.

BASE BALL.Three Games Will Be Played Here
This Week.

Hopkinsville won the first game from Henderson and lost the last two. Henderson was shut out Thursday, the score being 2 to 0. On Friday the score was 5 to 3 in favor of Henderson and on Saturday the latter team won by the score of 8 to 1.

There will be three games played here this week, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, between the Henderson and Hopkinsville teams. The games will be played at Athletic park and will be called at 3:30 each afternoon. The work of erecting the grand stand is progressing nicely and everything will be ready by the date of the first K.-J.-T. league game here. The new grand stand is 36 yards in length and has a seating capacity of 600 or 700 people.

RACE QUESTIONNot Disturbing Whites or Blacks
In Hopkinsville.*Well Considered Article From the Pen of Editor A. C.
Banks.

As an evidence of the good feeling existing between the races in Hopkinsville, we reproduce this article from the colored paper, The Major. Here, as elsewhere in the South where the negroes are let alone, the race problem is solving itself:

NEGROES IN HOPKINSVILLE.

Hopkinsville is a dry land town, but it is by no means void of the basic principles of the highest type of civilization. In speaking thus, we do not refer to the oward march of the whites alone, but of the colored citizens as well.

Of the former we must say that their movements speak volumes for their advancement made along all lines looking to the highest type of manhood and womanhood.

Their interest and respect for their colored brother is as good as we have been able to observe in any section, and far superior in disposition to the white people of many places in which the editor has lived and of which he has read.

As to labor, the colored people are given the preference in many lines, yet in many instances it can be said that foreign skilled labor has been allowed to push the Negro back in some instances.

This last feature has had the effect to make the colored brother save his earnings and accept the adage, that "every tub must stand on its own bottom."

A little jaunt about the city this week gave us great inspiration respecting the future prosperity of our colored citizens, and we would like to mention all of the improvements we noted concerning the many pleasant homes, but space forbids.

As for business men we have 10 grocers, 3 undertakers, 12 restaurants, 11 barbershops, 3 blacksmith shops, 1 confectionery, 5 painters and paper hangers, 2 stone contractors, 2 brick masons, 4 dispensaries of wet goods I printing and binding establishment, 5 plasterers, 1 sign writer, 1 dairyman.

Speaking of the professionals, we have them too. There are 98 teachers, 4 lawyers, 3 physicians, several musicians, and last, but not least, a respectable host of sainly divines.

We cannot exactly classify the mail carriers, but we take pleasure in informing the world that we have three negroes in that tribe, and that they are first-class carrying men.

Inurities in the blood produced by digestive disorders must be driven out before hot weather comes. The signs will appear at a time when a strong vigorous body is most needed. Prickly Ash Bitters will expel all impurities and put the system in perfect order. R. C. Hardwick, Special Agents.

RAILROAD RUMOR.Claim That T. C. Has Been

G. A. Clark at Nashville.

Chattanooga, Tenn., May 24.—It was stated yesterday afternoon by a prominent official of the Louisville & Nashville that the company had purchased the Tennessee Central all the way from Clarksville to Harriman. It was said by the official, with the understanding that his name should not be used, that the Tennessee Central was purchased before President Jerry Bixler resigned. He said:

"The physical connection now being made at Nashville between the two roads is an element in carrying out the deal. The construction of the Tennessee Central into Harriman and the construction of the Louisville & Nashville from Oliver Springs to Harriman Junction is the closing up of the loop between Knoxville to Nashville and Clarksville."

Denied By Clark.

General Manager G. A. Clark, of the Tennessee Central, was seen Sunday night by a representative of The American and asked regarding the rumor from Chattanooga. He declared that there is absolutely nothing to the statement and that no such deal has been made.

Does Advertising Pay?

AN INTERESTING STORY.

"A Little Talk About a Big Success" is the title of an interesting and instructive 48-page pamphlet, by J. F. Draughon, the promoter of a stock company of three hundred thousand dollars ($3,000.00) recently organized to be known as Draughon's Practical Business College Company.

In a humorous, but convincing way, the pamphlet gives the history of the many ups and downs of the author since establishing his first Business College on wheels fifteen years ago.

It is a story that may be a beacon light to guide one to success, especially when beset by difficulties and discouragement.

USE OF PRINTERS' INK.

Commenting on the use of printers' ink, Prof. Draughon says that his first investment of $25.00 in printers' ink fifteen years ago has been turned over and over by judicious advertising to the extent of half a million dollars since that date. Under the heading of "Does Advertising Pay," Prof. Draughon comments quite extensively on advantages and disadvantages of advertising, which comments will be read with much interest and profit by business men and others. From this department of the pamphlet we call the following:

"Being an extensive advertiser, I am often asked it I think that advertising pays, and to such inquiries I always reply that it depends upon the line of business, the merits of the article to be advertised and the manner of preparing and placing advertisements. While advertising does not always pay, I believe that to the advertiser of an article which contains the proper merit, judicious will bring abundant returns. Continuous advertising starts an endless chain of results where the thing advertised fulfills every statement put before the public.

"The only satisfactory advertising that I have ever done, has been newspaper advertising and circulars sent to those who are supposed to be directly interested. I distribute but few circulars promiscuously, as I consider it unprofitable to do so. For my business, I think it best to first locate those interested by newspaper advertising, then follow up the inquiries with convincing literature."

Prof. Draughon devotes several pages to the subject of advertising. When one who has been as successful as Prof. Draughon speaks so favorably of in preference to other means of advertising, it will, to those who heed his advice, save in many cases thousands of dollars that are so often spent for advertising through the wrong mediums.

The story goes on in an interesting manner, explaining the many difficulties encountered after his colleges had a migratory existence for sometime, in establishing Draughon's Practical Business Colleges permanently in St. Louis, Mo.; Atlanta, Ga.; Montgomery, Ala.; Fort Worth, Tex.; Galveston, Tex.; Little Rock, Ark.; Shreveport, La.; and New Orleans.

Everybody's Magazine.

You will rarely see as interesting a table of contents as that of the June number of Everybody's Magazine. Beginning with the full-page frontispiece of Thomas Wallace Russell, who has taken Parnell's place as leader in the fight for Ireland's freedom, and ending with "some additional remarks" by Simon Ford, with his quaint and irresistible humor, the magazine is brim-full of bright, snappy, entertaining work by good writers, some of them well known, others who are sure to be. Then Ireland Will be Free, by Frederick James Gregg, makes romance of Ireland's long struggle for liberty, and at the same time reduces to simplicity the much discussed home-rule question. Justus Miles Forman, in The Necdie of the Damned, weaves a difficult choice into a somewhat strenuous love story. Intimate Portraits as usual are exclusive and introduce you to people whom you very much wish to know. The Wooing of Ah-Te continues the Indian Idyl begun in the May number. The Marquis and Miss Sally is a Western story by O. Henry. Twice Born, by Edmund Kussell, is a description of childhood in India, which conjures up the dreamy atmosphere of the East. In A Dakota Romance, M. W. Law, while telling a strong love story manages to paint a convincing picture of emigrant life on the western prairie. James L. Ford is at his best in The Coming Queen of Comedy. Lillian Pettiginn concludes Tolters of the Home, making many interesting statements about the lives and thoughts of servant girls. Read Significant Autobiographies if you would know how it feels to be lifted from a small western town into Congress and out again. In The Imperturbable Moors, Will Payne has written one of the finest character studies that has ever appeared in any magazine. Herman Whitaker, in The Wheel of the Potter, gives us a stirring tale of the Northwest. The four Little Stories of real life in this number are above the average. Mary Stewart Cutting's Glad Tidings is an exceptionally good story. With the Profession is full of information, interest, and a great many bright things. Don't fail to read it.

"I have derived great benefit from the use of Chamberlain's Pain Balsam for rheumatism and lumbago," says Mrs. Annie Haggard, of Hopkinsville, Ky. "My husband used it for a sprained back and was also quickly relieved. In fact it is the best family liniment I ever used. I would not think of being without it. I have recommended it to others, and they always speak very highly of it and declare its merits are wonderful." For sale by C. K. Wyly, druggist.

Marriage in India.

Marriage, no one escapes it in India. It is, as death and birth, inevitable. Only birth and death are our fatalities, marriage may come by choice, caprice, or accident; these are not found in Indian dictationaries. The wisdom of selection is left to parents. Of course there are mistakes, surprises, disappointments, as everywhere. But I saw as much love-light in happy eyes in India as in any other country. —Edmund Russell in Everybody's Magazine.

The Octopus.

One tentacle gripping the stomach, another tickling the heart, a third encircling your head every hour—dyspepsia is the monster that does all this and worse. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsi will make it let go mighty quick. All druggists.

AUGUST 14TH.

Jeffries and Corbett Will Fight On Above Date.

San Francisco, Cal., May 19. James J. Jeffries and James J. Corbett today signed articles for a match to take place in San Francisco on or about August 14. The pugilists accepted the offer of the Yosemite club, which will allow the principals to divide between them 80 per cent. of the gross receipts.

A little life may be sacrificed to a sudden attack of croup, if you don't have Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil on hand for the emergency.

Commissioner's Sale.

Christian Circuit Court, Kentucky. Jas. J. Stuart's Admir., Against [redacted] Equity
Helen H. Stuart & others.

By virtue of a judgment and order of sale of the Christian Circuit court, rendered at the February term thereof, 1903, in the above cause I shall proceed to offer for sale the said house door in Hopkinsville, Ky., to the highest bidder at public auction, on Monday, the 1st day of June, 1903, at 11 o'clock a.m. or thereafter, (being County Court day) upon a credit of six and twelve months, following described property to wit:

Certain lots or parcels of ground, situated in Christian county, Ky. One tract situated on the waters of West Fork of the Red river, in the neighborhood of Salina Springs, and being the same tract on which Jas. J. Stuart resided, and was conveyed to him and Lunicy Stuart by John C. Fruitt and wife, by deed recorded in the Christian county office in Deed Book 44, page 204, said tract contains 175 1/2 acres, more or less.

Two lots situated on the north side of Seventh street, between Main and Virginia streets, in the city of Hopkinsville, said lots being situated on the road leading to the Com's in the case of R. Martin, against W. H. Sassee and others, each lot fronting on East Seventh street 21 feet, and running back northward to a 20 foot alley 72 1/2 feet embraced in the dead end Hunter Wood, Master Com'r, to Jas. J. Stuart.

Another tract or parcel of land, situated in Christian county, Ky., near Salina Springs, and adjacent to the tract described in the deed from Z. T. Rawlins, Ext'r of Luther Rawlins, dec'd, to the said Jas. J. Stuart, and bearing date Jan. 18th, 1893; said tract contains 229 and 88-100 acres, more or less, and is bounded on the west by a tract of land attached to and to be valued and sold with the first described tracts, conveyed to the said Jas. J. Stuart, by L. D. Watson and wife, by deed dated Dec. 15th, 1894; said ground is situated on the road leading to the Com's in the case of Casky Station, same having been part of the home place of L. D. Watson. Said land is being sold for the settlement of the estate of Jas. J. Stuart, dec'd, for the purchase price, the purchaser to execute bond with approved surety or securities, bearing legal interest from the day of sale until paid, and having the force and effect of a Plein Bond. Bidders will be prepared to comply promptly with these terms.

Not a Sick Day Since.

I was taken severely sick with kidney trouble. I tried all sorts of medicines, none of which relieved me. One day I saw an ad. of your Electric Bitters and determined to try that. After taking a few doses I felt relieved, and soon thereafter was entirely cured and have not seen a sick day since. Neighbors of mine have been cured of rheumatism, neuralgia, liver and kidney troubles and general debility." This is what B. F. Bass, of Fremont, N.C., writes. Only 50¢ at R. C. Hardwick's, druggist.

Gets $12,500 Damages.

Frankfort, Ky., May 22.—The court of appeals affirmed the judgment of the Daviess circuit court, giving Thomas Ware's administrator $12,500 damages against the Cumberland telephone company. Ware, a lineman, was killed while stringing a wire that other employees had allowed to come in contact with a live electric light wire.

"What's in a name?" The word "bitters" does not always indicate something harsh and disagreeable. Prickly Ash Bitters is proof of this. It does strengthen and stimulates the system thoroughly, yet it is so pleasant the most delicate stomach will not object to it. R. C. Hardwick, Special Agent.

Fined for Wearing Badge.

Cadiz, May 21.—A case rather out of the ordinary was tried in the Cadiz police court here. Jesse Russell, a negro boy, was fined $1 and costs for wearing an Elk pin, under the statute prohibiting the wearing of a badge of any secret order by any person other than a member.

Hammocks.

I had the good fortune to buy a large assortment of Hammocks. Drummers, Sample as good as new, at figures that will enable me to retail them at wholesale prices and make a fair profit.

Couple Lived Together Only About a Year.

Thomas Redd has instituted divorce proceedings against Anna Redd. They were married in March, 1901, and the plaintiff states that April 1, 1902, defendant without cause abandoned his home and has refused and still refuses to live with him.

Slight Improvement.

Mrs. Sarah Kirkpatrick, who was paralysed last week, is somewhat better, but she is still in a very serious condition.

Warm spring days produce a feeling of drowsiness if the body is loaded with the impurities of winter diet. Cleanse the blood, liver and bowels with Prickly Ash Bitters. It creates energy and cheerfulness. R. C. Hardwick, Special Agent.

"FORGE IN THE FOREST"

One of Leading Band Numbers of Kurkamp Program.

One of the leading band numbers of the spectacular and characteristic class of Kurkamp and his band, which will appear at Holland's Opera House Thursday night, June 4, is the "Forge in the Forest." With a corps of musical blacksmiths in their red shirts, caps and leather aprons, with anvils electrified till they give out sparks of fire when beaten and tones clear as church bells, with lowered lights and the full strength of the band and singers, and in the beauty of the red glowing background, it is little wonder that the public clamor for an encore again and again.

Jolly For Chairman Gary.

Hon. George E. Gary, chairman of the Christian county committee, and therefore chairman of the Third judicial district committee, made a pleasant impression on our Democrats while here at the meeting of the district committee last Friday. Mr. Gary is a gentleman of culture, a loyal, hard working Democrat and withal a man who loves justice and who will always do the right.—Tale of Two Cities.

Accident to Boy.

Herbert Hays, son of Thos. Hays, fell from a mule Friday, sustaining a fracture of the arm. Dr. T. W. Blaize rendered the necessary surgical aid and the little fellow is now doing well.

FOR PRISON COMMISSIONER.

First District Plan Announces for the Position.

Frankfort, Ky., May 21.—The fact has just become public that Mr. J. W. McDonald, of Calloway county, former secretary of the prison commission, will be a candidate for prison commissioner before the next legislature. Mr. McDonald's trip to Paducah, and other points in the western part of the state, whence he returned yesterday, is said to have been there in the interest of his candidacy, and the shaping up of his political fiances in that end of the State.

Mr. Geo. V. Green, of Christian county, the commissioner whose term will expire with the next legislature, is a candidate to succeed himself. Mr. McDonald, who is announced in opposition to him, was secretary of the commission for several years, and is thoroughly conversant and qualified for the duties of the place.

Quarles-Hilser.

Mr. Jas. R. Quarles, of this place, and Miss Addie O. Hilser, of Sinking Fork, were married at the Christian church, at Sinking Fork, Sunday afternoon. Eld. H. D. Smith performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Quarles are boarding on East Ninth street.
